

FRIENDS OF HATHORN FOUNDERS' DAY MAY 21, 2022 11-3 PM

Old Stone House Inn, 21 Hathorn Rd., Warwick NY

How did physical, political, and social boundaries shape the world of the Founding Generation?

"Get off my land!" "Get back in your place!" "Stop hemming us in!" "Give us our rights!"

Please join us to explore the many ways in which physical, political, and social boundaries shaped everyday life in the late 18th century.

Our volunteers and historical organizations will be on-site outdoors at the Gen. John Hathorn house historic site for this free family-friendly event, thanks to the generosity of owners of The Old Stone House Inn.

SPECIAL GUESTS:

- John Muller, surveyor reenactor, Corps of Engineers, King's Army in America
- Evan Pritchard, Center for Algonquin Culture & Author of Mapping Native New York
- Fifth New York Regiment, Revolutionary War re-enactors
- Kemyndable Flute Trio: an evening concert of 18th century music

EXPERIENCE: How the land was measured, mapped & parceled out during the English colonial era. How did math, astronomy, and other sciences and arts come together to create New York and the United States?

DISCOVER the homelands of the indigenous people of our region before and during colonial expansion.

INTERACT with 18th century military & civilian reenactors as they struggle within the roles and social groups they were bound to.

HONOR Warwick's Founding Veterans and all the people of our area who endured 9 years of war while the nation was being born.

LEARN with our volunteers and cultural educators!
