

Falling into Art: A Celebration of Autumnal Color

COMMUNITY ART SHOW—Fall 2025

As the world transforms in a blaze of gold, crimson, rust, and amber, we invite artists to capture the magic of the season in "Falling Into Art"—a community exhibition honoring the rich visual poetry of autumn.

From falling leaves and fading light to harvest scenes and moments of quiet reflection, this show is a celebration of the season's colors, moods, and transitions. We're looking for work that evokes the beauty, depth, and emotion of fall—whether literal or abstract, traditional or experimental.

All visual art mediums are welcome: painting, sculpture, photography, digital art, mixed media, and more.

Call or email Siobhan O'Riordan at 986-1047, ext. 6 or soriordan@rcls.org to register by September 8 or if you have any questions.

ENTRY FORMS

Please completely fill out the entry form; keep the claim slip portion and attach the other parts to your work before your drop it off.

All entrants must also sign the Waiver; the Library is not responsible for any damage or loss to work displayed. Each exhibitor is responsible for reviewing the Library's Exhibition Policy (available online at www.albertwisnerlibrary.org).

Library staff will determine placement of art. We cannot accommodate individual requests.
